

DU for Government Loans Release Notes

January 2017 Release

December 20, 2016

During the weekend of January 21, 2017, Desktop Underwriter® (DU®) for government loans will be updated to support the VA and FHA 2017 loan limit changes.

NOTE: For ease of reference, this document generally uses the term “DU” to refer to “DU for government loans.”

VA 2017 County Loan Limit Changes

The new county loan limits are available on VA’s website at:
http://www.benefits.va.gov/homeloans/purchaseco_loan_limits.asp

VA loan casefiles submitted or resubmitted prior to the weekend of January 21, 2017, will be underwritten using the 2016 VA county loan limits. VA loan casefiles submitted or resubmitted on or after the weekend of January 21, 2017, will be underwritten using the 2017 VA county loan limits.

NOTE: Because the 2017 VA county loan limits will not be implemented on the date they are in effect, lenders must ensure that the correct VA county loan limit is applied for all VA loans underwritten through DU from January 1 through January 21, 2017.

FHA Loan Limits

FHA county loan limits are applied by the FHA TOTAL mortgage scorecard, so a DU update is not required for FHA’s 2017 county loan limit updates.

However, in cases where a property county cannot be determined, DU applies the FHA National Low Cost Area Limit, therefore the 2017 FHA National Low Cost Area Limit amounts will be updated in DU as part of this release. In these cases, DU will display the 2016 limit on FHA loan casefiles submitted or resubmitted prior to the weekend of January 21, 2017 where a property county cannot be determined, regardless of Agency Case Number assignment date. For FHA loan casefiles submitted or resubmitted on or after the weekend of January 21, 2017 where a property county cannot be determined, DU will display the 2017 FHA National Low Cost Area Limit, regardless of Agency Case Number assignment date. Lenders are responsible for verifying that the correct limit is applied when determining eligibility.
