JANUARY 2006

HIGHLIGHTS FOR JANUARY INCLUDE:

- · Fannie Mae's book of business grew at a compound annualized rate of 6.9 percent in January, driven by outstanding MBS, which grew at an 11.8 percent compound annualized rate.
- Total business volume was $51.1 billion, compared to $57.9 billion the previous month.
- · Lender-originated MBS issues rose to $41.5 billion from $39.6 billion the previous month.
- Portfolio purchases of $12.2 billion were offset by portfolio liquidations of $12.4 billion and portfolio sales of $1.8 billion, which resulted in a 3.1 percent compound annualized decline in the gross mortgage portfolio.
- · The conventional singlefamily delinquency rate (90 days or more delinquent) rose two basis points in December to 0.79 percent. The multifamily delinquency rate (60 days or more delinquent) remained stable at 0.27 percent.
- The duration gap on Fannie Mae's portfolio averaged zero months in January.

MORTGAGE MARKET HIGHLIGHTS:

 Both new and existing home sales rose to record levels in 2005 for the 5th consecutive year. New home sales totaled 1.28 million units, exceeding sales activity in 2004 by 6.6 percent, while existing home sales rose by 4.3 percent to 7.07 million units. Fannie Mae estimates that new and existing home sales will fall by about 6.8 percent and 8.5 percent, respectively, in 2006.

In connection with the pending reaudit and restatement of Fannie Mae's previously published financial statements, management is undertaking a comprehensive review of Fannie Mae's accounting routines and controls, financial reporting process and the application of generally accepted accounting principles. While most of the information contained in this summary is not derived from Fannie Mae's financial statements, we expect that some of this information will be impacted by the re-audit and restatement. Management believes that the information may be useful to investors for comparing current business activities with those of prior periods and for reviewing trends in our business, notwithstanding that information may change, perhaps materially, from what is reported herein. Issues under review that will cause some of this information to change include those related to securities accounting, loan accounting, consolidation and amortization. More information regarding the re-audit and restatement may be found in Form 8-Ks Fannie Mae filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 22, 2004, March 18, 2005, May 11, 2005, August 9, 2005 and November 10, 2005.
