

UNSOLICITED IDEAS DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

I intend to disclose to Fannie Mae certain ideas for consideration pertaining to:

[Please summarize object of the ideas]

In connection with such disclosure, I agree and acknowledge that:

1. Fannie Mae expects that anyone submitting ideas to Fannie Mae will rely solely upon his or her patent rights and that, if I want to protect my ideas, I would file a patent application prior to the submission of such ideas to Fannie Mae. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall be interpreted or construed as a license to Fannie Mae under any of my patent rights.
2. Fannie Mae shall be in no way obligated to me, nor shall Fannie Mae's legal rights be prejudiced, by considering my ideas. This document does not create any obligation on Fannie Mae's part concerning my ideas. A specific agreement with Fannie Mae in writing would be necessary to create any obligation by Fannie Mae.
3. Any disclosure of my ideas to Fannie Mae is unsolicited and gratuitous and cannot be considered confidential or secret disclosure. Notwithstanding the foregoing, I agree that I will not disclose this agreement to any third party or the fact that I will submit, or have submitted, my ideas to Fannie Mae.
4. This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the District of Columbia.

I further represent that I have the full authority to make the disclosure and that such disclosure will not violate any agreement or infringe upon the rights of third parties.
