Software Subscription Agreement

This Bulletin is issued pursuant to the section of the Fannie Mae Software Subscription Agreement (the “Agreement”) titled Issued Bulletins; Amendments, and amends and restates the Master Terms and Conditions and all Schedules as described in the attached version of the Consolidated Technology Guide (the “Guide”).

The purpose of this Bulletin is to notify Licensees that the Master Terms and Conditions and all Schedules have been transitioned to the new Guide published on October 6, 2021. As of the Effective Date of this Bulletin, Licensees must comply with all applicable terms and conditions of the Agreement as they appear in the Guide; specifically, the Master Terms & Conditions, which will now be called the General Terms & Conditions, as well as all applicable Schedules. Applicable Schedules are those that govern the Licensed Applications to which Licensee has access, as maintained in Licensee’s Fannie Mae technology profile.

The substance of the Agreement has not been altered during this transition to the new guide format – the Master Terms and Conditions and Schedules are unchanged. All other terms and conditions of the Agreement will continue in full force and effect. Future updates to the Master Terms and Conditions and Schedules will be made in the Guide, and notice of any content changes will be communicated to Licensees via Bulletin in accordance with the section of the Guide entitled Notification of Changes and Updates.
