

Use this guide to update or add links to Fannie Mae’s consumer website

As first announced in April 2023, we have moved our consumer website content from KnowYourOptions.com, which we’re phasing out and retiring, to FannieMae.com—the new home of our educational resources for consumers. FannieMae.com’s design and simplified content make it easier for renters, homebuyers, and homeowners to find housing information.

Why are link updates needed, and when? Links to KnowYourOptions.com will automatically redirect visitors to similar content on FannieMae.com through June 30, 2024. We encourage you to update your links to KnowYourOptions.com with the new FannieMae.com URLs on your website or elsewhere to ensure visitors to your site can still access our content after the redirects end. Additionally, we welcome you to link to any resources on our site that could serve as an educational resource for your site visitors.

How to update links and text references to Fannie Mae on your site: To assist you with link updates or the addition of new links, we have listed the retired KnowYourOptions.com URLs below along with the most-relevant new URLs on FannieMae.com for similar content.

To help you update your on-screen text references that describe or contain links to our site, we offer the following guidance:

- References to FannieMae.com: Because our corporate website includes content for several audiences, including business users, it is important to specify our consumer content when sending consumers to the site. We suggest, for example, “To learn more, visit the FannieMae.com consumer website at [link].” or “visit Fannie Mae’s consumer website at FannieMae.com [add link to target page].”
- References to housing counseling: If you link to housing counseling information on our site, note that we have combined and renamed our counseling services—formerly the Mortgage Help Network and Disaster Response Network—using a single vanity phone number, 855-HERE2HELP, and have created a vanity URL for our housing counseling page—FannieMae.com/here2help. For text references and links, we suggest language such as “Learn more about Fannie Mae’s free housing counseling services by calling 855-HERE2HELP (855-437-3243) or visiting FannieMae.com/here2help.”
